Resignation of ORCCA Executive Director

It is with a heavy heart and gratitude that we must announce the departure of Drew Farmer. Mr. Farmer has announced his resignation as the Executive Director for Oregon Coast Community Action (ORCCA).

Throughout Mr. Farmer's time served with ORCCA, he has helped lay some groundwork for leading ORCCA through a period of growth and development. His dedication to helping people in need has not only had a profound effect on ORCCA, but it will also serve him well in his future endeavors, including his continued work for our community.

ORCCA's Board of Directors are dedicated to guiding and supporting ORCCA staff through this transition. We are thankful for Mr. Farmer's dedication, passion, and enthusiasm he has given ORCCA over the past year. We wish him the best of luck as he leaves to pursue other professional career opportunities.

ORCCA has a strong succession plan in place and Alexis Barry, Deputy Director, will be serving as Interim Executive Director. We are left in great and capable hands, and the work for creating positive change for thriving communities will continue.

Kind regards,

Tamie Kaufman

Board Chair, Oregon Coast Community Action
